A "NON-PARTISAN" DEMOCRAT

A Chairman of the Democratic National Committee had a conference with President Wilson and came away with the announcement that he "found the President embarrassed by the thought that he ought not to turn to politics until the business of this session of Congress is over."

Strange, isn't it, how suddenly the President has come to the conclusion that he ought not engage in partisan discussion until the work of Congress has ended. A year ago last January he went out to Indianapelis and made an address in which he made the ridiculous charge that the Republicans have not had a new idea in thirty years. In New York, in North Carolina and other places he has made intensely partisan speeches while the work of Congress was in prog-

But, in addition to talking partisan polities, he has persistently practiced partisan polities. He has overthrown the merit system in the public service in order to fill the places with partisans. He has violated the spirit of laws for the ereation of bi-partisan commissions . DANISH WEST INDIES TO and has given almost unanimous control of such commissions to the Democratic party. He has permitted members of his cabinet to go about making partisan speeches. He has permitted government employes to be used at public expense for the dissemination of partisan arguments. He has permitted revenue collected from all the people to be used for the general distribution of articles criticising part of Indies-St. Croix, St. Thomas and St. lands, lying four miles to the east of him over to one of her neighbors to the people.

Just now, when he sees an opportunity to get a few votes by posing as a non-partisan, he is embarrassed by the thought of talking politics, but it embarrassed him not one whit to do politics for Croix are of the first importance to the Bay, the best harbor of refuge in the nant type and died in two days. It more than three years. Therefore, his present pretensions fool no American navy and St. Thomas itself Antilles. Cruxbay, a village of 1,000 would certainly be using a harsh exbody with ordinary discernment.

Democratic platform in favor of upholding the spirit of the Civil Service law never have meant much to the American people since the days of Grover Cleveland. What such a declaration means at the present time may best be judged from the fact that the Wilson administration has taken 33,000 places out of the competitive ser United States has been the subject of if Denmark decides to part with the vice in order to fill them with Democratic partisans.
